Proposed Changes to Policies for Healthy Neighbourhoods, Neighbourhoods and Apartment Neighbourhoods

Official Plan Review

As part of the ongoing review of the Toronto Official Plan, the City of Toronto is updating and strengthening the Official Plan policies for residential lands. At the July 8, 2014 meeting, Council considered proposed draft policy changes to the Healthy Neighbourhoods, Neighbourhoods and Apartment Neighbourhoods sections of the Official Plan and directed that these draft policy changes be the basis for public consultation that occurred between October and December 2014. Following a citywide consultation and feedback, staff further refined the proposed policies. At its May 2015 meeting, Council endorsed the proposed revisions and directed that they be presented and considered at the June 16, 2015 open house.

The City values your input and wants to hear your comments on the proposed policy changes.

Open House will be held on:

Tuesday, June 16, 2015, Metro Hall, 55 John Street
(SE corner John and King Streets)
Room 308-309
6:30 to 9 p.m.
Staff Presentation at 7 p.m.
